DEDICATED TO THE BOYS OF NEWSPAPER ROW

Pull Off Your Coat
UNCLE SAM

(A MOTTO FOR EVERY MAN)

WORDS AND MUSIC

BY

THE DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT

PRICE 50 CENTS

THE ACORN PUBLISHING CO.
BOSTON, MASS.

"PULL OFF YOUR COAT, UNCLE SAM"

A Motto For Every Man

Words and Music by
"The Daughter of the Regiment"

VOICE PIANO
f Trumpet.
With Spirit
1. Come na-tions one and all to hu-
2. At dawns earl-y light let anp man - i - ty's call, In Bro - ther-hood Friendship and Love. Your oth - er star bright, Shine o'er us to show us the way. To a

Copyright, 1917, by Agnes Walker Lee Tracy International Copyright Secured

right we re - spect on land and on sea, But we must clasp hands and u - glo - ri - ous plan to save civ - i - lized man, And free him from ty - ran - ny's nit - ed be, If flags are un - furled all o - ver the world And sway. Too long has he laid 'neath the des - pot's proud heel, Down wave o'er hearts loy - al and true, Then wel - come an - oth - er a trod - den by kings in their might, Hu - man - i - ty's call bids us good staunch bro - ther, "Old Glo - ry" The Red, White and Blue.
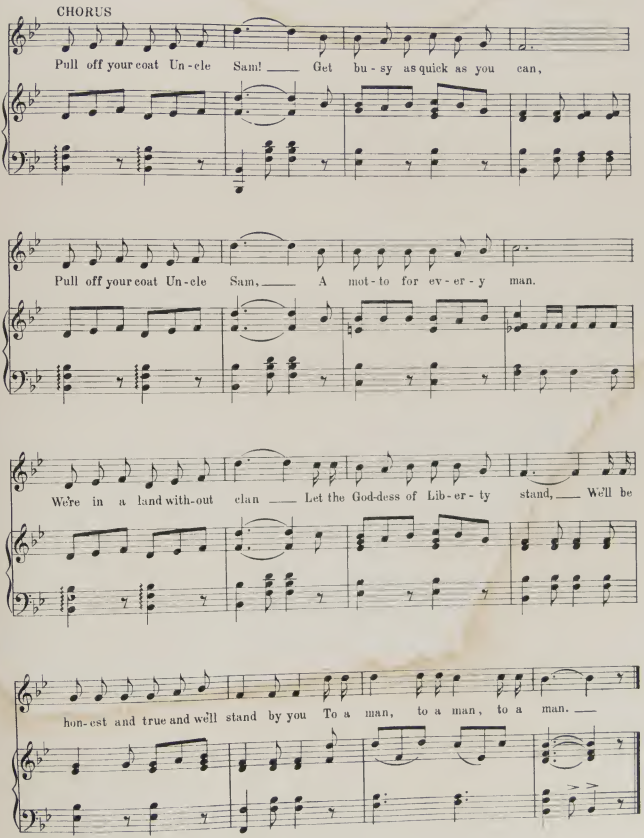
fight, one and all, For Vic - to - ry Jus - tice and Right!



CHORUS
Pull off your coat Un-cle Sam! Get bu-sy as quick as you can,
Pull off your coat Un-cle Sam, A mot-to for ev-er-y man.
We're in a land with-out clan Let the God-dess of Lib-er-ty stand, We'll be hon-est and true and we'll stand by you To a man, to a man, to a man.